

SECRET/NODIS

December 8, 1970

MEMORANDUM FOR HENRY A. KISSINGER

FROM: Al Haig

SUBJECT: Additional Talking Points for Your Meeting with the Vice President

ON-FILE NSC
RELEASE
INSTRUCTIONS
APPLY

During your meeting with the Vice President this afternoon, you may want to raise the following points in addition to those provided in the memo at the left flap:

- POW Mission. You may recall that the Vice President indicated to the press that the intelligence concerning the POW mission was probably faulty. You may want to brief him on the intelligence question. Although details of the mission have been covered extensively in the media, the Vice President may appreciate having your account.
- Understanding Concerning Reconnaissance. Discuss the background concerning the relationship of reconnaissance flights over North Vietnam to the bombing halt understanding. Give him your views on the extent of North Vietnamese agreement and show him the directive the President signed on November 30 (Tab A), as well as the quotations which have been provided to the President for use in his press conference on Thursday (Tab B).
- Cuba. Describe recent Soviet activities in Cuba including (1) the rendezvous with the Soviet tanker, frigate, F-class submarine and tender and their present location in a port at the southeastern tip of Cuba, (2) continued evidence of construction activity in the Cienfuegos area, and (3) the possibility that other F-class submarines are operating near Cuba. Give the Vice President some general background concerning the understanding with the Soviets on Cuba.

SECRET/NODIS

SECRET/NODIS

- 2 -

- Intelligence Problems. Discuss the problems you are having with the products of the intelligence community and mention specifically the assessment of the missile buildup in Egypt.
- Chile. Brief the Vice President on the latest tactics and strategy for dealing with the situation in Chile.
- SALT. Brief the Vice President on our current strategy for the SALT negotiations (Sonnenfeldt's memo "SALT: The Shaker is Running Out" is at Tab C).
- Leaks. Indicate that we continue to have a major problem concerning leaks of classified material from both the executive and legislative branches.
- China. The Vice President is undoubtedly concerned about trends in our China policy. Discuss the various aspects of the problems which are now being studied, as reflected in your two recent NSSMs.
- Foreign Assistance Package. Ask the Vice President for his assessment of the prospects of the President's one billion dollar supplementary request for foreign assistance and discuss with him the current tactics being followed by the Administration.
- World Situation. A brief global wrap-up on current world problems similar to that used in your briefing to the Vice President in the past will be prepared by the Situation Room this morning and attached at Tab D.

Attachments

AMH:JTH:mlc 12-8-70

SECRET/NODIS